Player	Footwork	Handling	Diving	QUICKNESS	COURAGE	REACTIONS	CONCENTRATION	ANGLE PLAY	READING GAME SITUATIONS	DISTRIBUTION	Total	Comments

FOOTWORK - The keepers ability to move their feet quickly and accurately to create a good platform to make a save
HANDLING - A good pair of hands seldom drops the ball, making firm catches at all angles and speeds

DIVING - The technique of making a dive save considering footwork, body position and handling

QUICKNESS - the ability to perform at high speed and move sharply to cover all rebounds

COURAGE - The strength of commitment to make good safe saves in difficult circumstances
REACTIONS - The ability to react to developing situations before others and show good reflexes at all times

CONCENTRATION - Keeping your mind fully focused on the game and your role within it
ANGLE PLAY - The ability to narrow the angle of the attacker taking at the correct position at the right time and at the right speed
READING GAME SITUATIONS - The ability to read game situations as they develop and be aware of the requirements of the goalkeeper in relation to those situations
DISTRIBUTION - The keepers ability to distribute the ball by hand or feet making good, perceptive decisions with accuracy and speed